

Name: _____

Compound Sentences

Directions: Take the two sentences and combine them into a compound sentence by adding a comma and an appropriate coordinating conjunction: for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so. Hint: You can use any conjunction you would like as long as your compound sentence makes sense.

1. I would like to draw. I don't have any pencils.

—

2. I am a dog lover. My sister is a cat lover.

—

3. Studying takes time. I enjoy learning new things.

—

4. Josie wants to eat burgers. I want to eat stir-fry.

Name: _____

5. Red is my favorite color. Blue is my second favorite.
